ROBERT MITCHUM

Dear Jim, I thank you for your recent letter. I certainly have read your book, with great enjoyment. However, upon your first communication, I was not aware that you considered it as a film. I dedicate to Jim, I agree that it should be a book and program picture. If I might, I should like to suggest Jim Morrison, the brilliant former film-maker as a director and catalyst. He is presently filming a project in Berlin, and if you could contact him it might be most advantageous. There is another fellow here, named John Cassin

I mention Talli, I met that guy in Vienna, and at the met a blonde like yours there.
I'll send you a picture.

When I shall contact and discuss the subject with.

I am essentially involved in "his one Remembrance", while will occupy me until next September, but the intervening time can be well used in developing a newspaper and assembling the ingredients necessary to artistic and pragmatic achievement.

Please write me and tell me what plans of yours you have, and I shall endeavor to do my best to get the program started.

Thank you sincerely for your interest.

Faithfully

Robert M. Johnson
